

Kiddush Ha-Shem

(literally, "sanctifying the Name [of God]"), Hebrew term used to indicate Jewish martyrdom, i.e. a Jew choosing to die for the sake of his religion or in the case of the Holocaust, a Jew being murdered simply for being a Jew.