

Fuehrerprinzip

German term, meaning "leadership principle," which refers to the Nazi value of revering and even worshiping the leader, or Fuehrer. Authority was to flow from the top to the bottom and responsibility in the opposite direction.