

Benes, Edvard

(1884--1948), President of Czechoslovakia from 1935 and head of the London-based Czechoslovak government-in-exile during WORLD WAR II. Benes condemned the annihilation of European Jewry and supported Jewish aspirations for a Jewish state in Palestine.