

Jodl, Alfred

(1890-1946), Chief of the German Armed Forces High Command Operational Staff during World War II. Jodl served as Hitler's chief advisor on operations and strategy, and commanded all of the Wehrmacht's campaigns except the one against the Soviet Union. He was sentenced to death at Nuremberg and hanged in 1946.