Questions:

1. Describe what you have learned about the pre-war relationship between the rescuer and the rescued Jew(s): Did they know each other? If yes, what was their connection?

2. Describe how the decision to help Jew(s) changed the everyday life of the rescuer. What risk/s did he or she take upon him- or herself.

3. Why did the rescuer(s) decide to help the Jew(s)? Do we always know the reason?

4. Describe what it meant for the Jew(s) to receive help: What was their everyday life like?

5. What happened after the war to the rescued Jew(s) and to their rescuers. Refer also to the recognition as Righteous Among the Nations by Yad Vashem.