

Multi Media in Holocaust Education

Seminar for Yad Vashem Graduates from the United Kingdom in partnership with the IOE's Centre for Holocaust Education and Centropa

28th -29th November 2012

IOE, Room 828, 20, Bedford Way, London WC1H 0AL

Wednesday, 28.11.12

- 10:00-10:30 Arrival and registration
- 10:30-11:30 What should we remember? (Workshop). Shani Lourie & Yiftach Meiri, Yad Vashem
- 11:30-11:45 Break
- 11:45-12:45 Presentation of Centropa website (including the screening of 2 short films),
Edward Serrota & Fabian Ruhle, Centropa
- 12:45-13:30 Lunch Break
- 13:30-14:45 Centropa Workshop – Teachers break up in small groups and draft lesson plan on the spot, Edward Serrota & Fabian Ruhle, Centropa
- 14:45-15:45 Groups present their lesson plans to the larger group
- 15:45-16:15 Break
- 16:15-17:30 "May your memory be love" – The story of Ovadya Baruch, a survivor from Thessaloniki. Yiftach Meiri, Yad Vashem

Thursday, 29.11.12

- 09:00-09:30 Arrival
- 09:30- 10:30 Holocaust education in the UK - "The Way We Lived and Roots of Antisemitism" - two educational films supporting Holocaust learning. Rachel Donnelly, Imperial War Museum
- Reaching UK Schools: Meeting their needs through the Web'. Alan Fell, London Jewish Cultural Centre
- 10:30-10:45 Break

The seminar is supported by:

- 10:45-12:15 Holocaust education in the UK continued: "What Film Can (and Cannot) Teach Us about the Holocaust". Richard Hill, Holocaust Educational Trust; 'The Journey': An Approach to Teaching about the Kindertransport', Karen Vancoevorden, The Holocaust Centre
- Allowing students to create their own meaning: survivor voice in the classroom' Kay Andrews, IOE's Centre for Holocaust Education, University of London
- 12:15-12:30 Break
- 12:30-13:30 Mosaic of memory – The struggle of mothers in the Holocaust, Shani Lourie, Yad Vashem
- 13:30-14:15 Lunch Break
- 14:15-15:45 Presentation educational projects – by the seminar graduates, followed by discussion. Discussion in groups according to educational framework, Shani Lourie & Yiftach Meiri, Yad Vashem
- 15:45-16:00 Break
- 16:00-16:30 Concluding discussion

The seminar is supported by: