

YAD VASHEM
The International School for Holocaust Studies

Presidenza Italiana
del Consiglio
dell'Unione Europea

Ministero dell'Istruzione, dell'Università e della Ricerca

European Symposium: Establishing a European Teaching Network on Shoah Education

Monday, December 15th 2014
Jewish Community Centre IL PITIGLIANI
Via Arco de' Tolomei, 1, Rome

Welcome address by Ugo Limentani, Il Pitigliani President

Greetings

- Stefania Giannini, Minister of Education, University and Research
- Andreas Loverdos, Minister of Education and Religious Affairs of the Hellenic Republic
- Mario Giro, Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation
- 09:15 ▪ Eyal Kaminka, Director of the International School for Holocaust Studies of Yad Vashem
- Naor Gilon, Ambassador of Israel to Italy
- Vince Szalay-Bobrovniczky, Ambassador of Hungary to Austria, IHRA Head of Delegation
- Renzo Gattegna, UCEI President

10:15 Coffee break

10:45 Lecture by Shulamit Imber (Yad Vashem Pedagogical Director of the International School for Holocaust Studies)

11:30 Lecture by David Silberklang (Yad Vashem Scholar)

12:15 Lecture by Michele Sarfatti, (Director of Cdec - Contemporary Jewish Documentation Centre)

13:00 Presentation by Paul Salmons (University College of London, IOE Centre for Holocaust)

13:15 Lunch

14:15 Regional Roundtable (Discussion by Participants on practical strategies and challenges in building a European teaching network on Shoah education)

15:15 Break

15:30 Short reports on discussions and recommendations in Plenum

16:15 Concluding remarks

In the Pitigliani premises an exhibition of the best works of the Italian students will be held. These works have been realized for the annual competition "Young People remember the Holocaust" organized by the Italian Ministry of Education and UCEI.

Supported by:
The Federal Republic of Germany

